

ESTIMATING

DALLASWHITE employs professionally trained estimators who use Xactimate software and their years of construction and insurance expertise to generate the most accurate geo-specific pricing for all projects. Our estimators will work with property owners and insurance adjusters to define the scope of work, establish a cost to perform the work, and generate a detailed specification for the construction team to follow when performing the work.

